Contents

1. Beyond Anthropocentrism—Why ‘Taming’ or ‘Tackling’ Wicked Problems’ is Problematic .............................................. 1

2. People and the Planet: Implications of Hybridity for Ethics and Consumption Choices ........................................ 41

3. Planetary Passport for Social and Environmental Justice to Address an Increasingly Vulnerable and Unequal World ........ 135

4. Political Freedom Versus Democracy ........................................ 251

5. Cross-Cultural Learning Community Challenges and Opportunities ................................................................. 273

6. Executive Summary .......................................................... 325

   Bibliography ...................................................................... 347

   Index ................................................................................ 367
Planetary Passport
Re-presentation, Accountability and Re-Generation
McIntyre-Mills, J.J.
2017, XLVI, 371 p. 73 illus., 71 illus. in color., Hardcover
ISBN: 978-3-319-58010-4