Contents

Part I  GROUNDWORK: Revealing Place and Memory

1  Introduction
   - Overview
   - Memory, Place, Conflict
   - Visual Research and Mapping Methodologies
   - Design, Commemoration, and Engagement
   - Argument and Structure of the Book

2  Contortions of Memory
   - Place, Memory, Conflict
   - Intergenerational Memory
   - Cultivated Memory
   - Urban Mythologies
   - Image and Memory
   - Absence
   - Dynamics

Part II  FOCUS: Excavating Nicosia’s Buffer Zone
Divergent Histories and the Cyprus Problem

3  Tracing Times in Place
Sites
Mapping Memories
The Everyday City: 1950s
The Devolving City: 1955–1963
The Enclaved City: 1963–1974
A Line Becomes a Border

4  The Reserve of Forgetting
The Resource of Place
Dissonant Memories: Within and Without
Normal Zamanlar—a Place Locked in Time
Memory, Myth, and Imagined Cities

5  Remains of the Day
Abstraction of Memory
Urban Images and Imaginaries
Nostalgic Utopias and Ideal Cities
Inside and Outside
Body Memory and Representation
Spatial Characteristics and Screen Memory
Outside Memory in Contested Cities

Part III  POIESIS: Designing for Emotional Bodies

6  Modes of Engagement
Critiques and Strategies of Commemoration
Blind Fields
Mapping Practices
Art Practices
Performance
Community Organizing
Alternatives to Abstraction
7 Materializing Metaphor
   A Political Imperative 266
   (Hybrid) Mind + (Non-Visual) Matter 271
   Emotion and Empathic Engagement 280
   Materials and Sedimentation of Time 287
   Conclusion: A Middle Ground 293

Appendix 1: Timeline of Selected Events Affecting the Commercial Life of Nicosia: 1943–1960 301

Appendix 2: Timeline of Selected Events from 1963–1974 303

Glossary 305

Bibliography 309

Index 331
Topographies of Memories
A New Poetics of Commemoration
Bakshi, A.
2017, XVII, 340 p. 55 illus. in color., Hardcover
ISBN: 978-3-319-63461-6