Contents

1 Safety: A Matter for ‘Professionals’? ................................. 1
Claude Gilbert

2 A Practice-Based Approach to Safety as an Emergent Competence ................................. 11
Silvia Gherardi

3 Line Managers as Work Professionals in the Era of Workplace Health Professionalization ................................. 23
Pascal Ughetto

4 Captain Kirk, Managers and the Professionalization of Safety ................................. 35
Hervé Laroche

5 A Critique from Pierre-Arnaud Delattre ................................. 41
Pierre-Arnaud Delattre

6 Enhancing Safety Performance: Non-technical Skills and a Modicum of Chronic Unease ................................. 45
Rhona Flin

7 Situated Practice and Safety as Objects of Management ................................. 59
Petter G. Almklov

8 Stories and Standards: The Impact of Professional Social Practices on Safety Decision Making ................................. 73
Jan Hayes

9 Doing What Is Right or Doing What Is Safe ................................. 85
Linda J. Bellamy

10 Industrial Perspective on the Seminar: The Viewpoint of a Mining Expert ................................. 97
Jonathan Molyneux
11 How to Deal with the Contradictions of Safety Professional Development? ................................. 103
Benoit Journé

12 Can Safety Training Contribute to Enhancing Safety? ............... 111
Corinne Bieder

13 Training Design Oriented by Works Analysis ....................... 117
Vincent Boccara

14 Safety and Behaviour Change ........................................ 127
Paul M. Chadwick

15 Power and Love ........................................................... 139
Nicolas Herchin

16 Beyond Safety Training, Toward Professional Development ...... 151
Caroline Kamaté, Hervé Laroche and François Daniellou
Beyond Safety Training
Embedding Safety in Professional Skills
Bieder, C.; Gilbert, C.; Journé, B.; Laroche, H. (Eds.)
2018, XII, 159 p. 4 illus., 2 illus. in color., Softcover
ISBN: 978-3-319-65526-0