

Preface

This volume contains the papers selected for presentation at the 9th International Conference on Rough Sets, Fuzzy Sets, Data Mining and Granular Computing (RSFDGrC 2003) held at Chongqing University of Posts and Telecommunications, Chongqing, P.R. China, May 26–29, 2003. There were 245 submissions for RSFDGrC 2003 excluding for 2 invited keynote papers and 11 invited plenary papers. Apart from the 13 invited papers, 114 papers were accepted for RSFDGrC 2003 and were included in this volume. The acceptance rate was only 46.5%. These papers were divided into 39 regular oral presentation papers (each allotted 8 pages), 47 short oral presentation papers (each allotted 4 pages) and 28 poster presentation papers (each allotted 4 pages) on the basis of reviewer evaluations. Each paper was reviewed by three referees.

The conference is a continuation and expansion of the International Workshops on Rough Set Theory and Applications. In particular, this was the ninth meeting in the series and the first international conference. The aim of RSFDGrC2003 was to bring together researchers from diverse fields of expertise in order to facilitate mutual understanding and cooperation and to help in cooperative work aimed at new hybrid paradigms.

It is our great pleasure to dedicate this volume to Prof. Zdzislaw Pawlak, who first introduced the basic ideas and definitions of rough sets theory over 20 years ago. Rough sets theory has grown to be a useful method in soft computing. It has also been applied in many artificial intelligence systems and research fields, such as data mining, machine learning, pattern recognition, uncertain reasoning, granular computing, intelligent decision-making, etc. Many international conferences now include rough sets in their lists of topics.

The main theme of the conference was centered around rough sets theory, fuzzy sets theory, data mining technology, granular computing, and their applications. The papers contributed to this volume reflect advances in these areas and some other closely related research areas, such as,

- Rough sets foundations, methods, and applications
- Fuzzy sets and systems
- Data mining
- Granular computing
- Neural networks
- Evolutionary computing
- Machine learning
- Pattern recognition and image processing
- Logics and reasoning
- Multi-agent systems
- Web intelligence
- Intelligent systems

We wish to express our gratitude to Profs. Zdzislaw Pawlak, Bo Zhang, and Ling Zhang for accepting our invitation to be keynote speakers at RSFDGrC 2003. We also wish to thank Profs.
