#77 Common Bile Duct Stenosis in Acute Pancreatitis 160
#78 Common Bile Duct Stenosis in Chronic Pancreatitis 162
#79 Other Benign Causes of Bile Duct Narrowing 164

3.3 Traumatic, Postoperative, and Iatrogenic Abnormalities 168
#80 After Hepatic Transplantation (1): Anastomotic Stricture 168
#81 After Hepatic Transplantation (2): Ischemic Stricture 170
#82 After Cholecystectomy (1): Stricture of the Common Bile Duct 172
#83 After Cholecystectomy (2): Bile Leak 174
#84 Post-cholecystectomy Syndrome 176
#85 Bile Duct Trauma Related to Nonbiliary Surgery 177
#86 Choledochoduodenostomy with Sump Syndrome 178

3.4 Malignant Tumors 180
#87 Extrahepatic Cholangiocarcinoma (1): Klatskin Tumor 180
#88 Extrahepatic Cholangiocarcinoma (2): Distal Duct Type 184
#89 Bile Duct Involvement by Gallbladder Carcinoma 186
#90 Bile Duct Involvement by Pancreatic Carcinoma 188
#91 Bile Duct Involvement by Other Extrabiliary Neoplasms 190

Gallbladder and Cystic Duct

4 Gallbladder and Cystic Duct 194
4.1 Normal Anatomy and Variants 194
#92 Gallbladder 194
#93 Cystic Duct 196
4.2 Benign Nontraumatic Abnormalities 198
#94 Cholecystolithiasis, Classical Appearance 198
#95 Cholecystolithiasis, Variant Appearance 200
#96 Acute Cholecystitis 202
#97 Acute Cholecystitis with Pericholecystitis 204
#98 Complications of Acute Cholecystitis (1): Intramural Abscess 206
#99 Complications of Acute Cholecystitis (2): Gangrene 208
#100 Complications of Acute Cholecystitis (3): Perforation 209

#110 Porcelain Gallbladder 226
#111 Reactive Thickening of the Gallbladder Wall 228
#112 Varices in the Gallbladder Wall 230
4.3 Traumatic, Postoperative, and Iatrogenic Abnormalities 232
   #113 Blunt Gallbladder Trauma . . . 232
   #114 After Cholecystectomy: Complications with Cystic Duct Remnant . . . 234

4.4 Malignant Tumors . . . . . . . 236
   #115 Gallbladder Carcinoma, General . . . . . . . . . . . . 237
   #116 Spread of Gallbladder Carcinoma (1): Direct Invasion of Liver Parenchyma and/or Biliary Tree 238
   #117 Spread of Gallbladder Carcinoma (2): Lymph Node Metastases . . . . . . . 240
   #118 Spread of Gallbladder Carcinoma (3): Other Metastases . . . . . . . 242

Vaterian Sphincter Complex

5 Vaterian Sphincter Complex 246
5.1 Normal Anatomy and Variants 246
   #119 Normal Anatomy . . . . . . . 246
   #120 Normal Contractile Activity . . 248
   #121 Variant Anatomy (1): Type of Junction . . . . . . . . 250
   #122 Variant Anatomy (2): “Pseudocalculus” Sign . . . . . . 252
   #123 Variant Anatomy (3): Length of Common Channel . . . . . . . 254
   #124 Variant Anatomy (4): Papilla in or Adjacent to a Duodenal Diverticulum . . . . . . . 256

5.2 Benign Nontraumatic Abnormalities . . . . . . . . . . . . 258
   #125 Impacted Stone . . . . . . . 258
   #126 Choledochocoele . . . . . . . 260
   #127 Sphincter Dysfunction, General 261
   #128 Sphincter Dysfunction, Features on Dynamic MRCP . . . . . . . 262
   #129 Sphincter Dysfunction, False-Negative Diagnosis on Dynamic MRCP . . . . . . . 266
   #130 Benign Tumors . . . . . . . . 268

5.3 Traumatic, Postoperative, and Iatrogenic Abnormalities 270
   #131 Sequelae/Complications of ERCP . . . . . . . . . . . . 270

5.4 Malignant Tumors . . . . . . . 272
   #132 (Peri-)Ampullary Carcinoma 272
   #133 Carcinoma of the Pancreatic Head Invading the Vaterian Sphincter Complex . . . . . . . 274

Pancreatic Ducts

6 Pancreatic Ducts . . . . . . . 276
6.1 Normal Anatomy and Variants 276
   #134 Normal Pancreas: Location and Signal Intensity . . . . . . . 276
   #135 Classical Ductal Anatomy . . . . . . . 278
   #136 Classical Ductal Anatomy in Pancreatic Head . . . . . . . 280
   #137 Variant Anatomy (1): “Bifid” Configuration with a Prominent Duct of Santorini . . . . . . . 282
   #138 Variant Anatomy (2): Ansa Pancreatica and Ductal Loops 284
   #139 Variant Anatomy (3): Focal Narrowing at the Junction 285
   #140 Variant Anatomy (4): Pancreas Divisum . . . . . . . . . . . 286
   #141 Variant Anatomy (5): Uneven Lipomatosis . . . . . . . . 290
   #142 Variant Anatomy (6): Lobulations of the Pancreatic Head . . . . . . . 292
   #143 Developmental Abnormalities (1): Agenesis of the Dorsal Pancreas . . . . . . . 293
   #144 Developmental Abnormalities (2): Annular Pancreas . . . . . . . 294
   #145 Developmental Abnormalities (3): Ectopic Pancreas . . . . . . . 296
   #146 Developmental Abnormalities (4): Partial Duplication . . . . . . . 298
   #147 The Elderly Pancreas . . . . . . . 299
   #148 Postoperative Anatomy (1): After Partial Resection . . . . . . . 300
6.2 Benign Nontraumatic Abnormalities

- Santorinicle and Wirsungocele
- Acute Pancreatitis, General
- Edematous Pancreatitis (Grades A and B)
- Acute Pancreatitis with Peripancreatic Inflammation (Grade C)
- Acute Pancreatitis with III-Defined Fluid Collection/Phlegmon (Grades D and E)
- Complications of Acute Pancreatitis (1): Necrosis
- Complications of Acute Pancreatitis (2): Pseudocyst
- Complications of Acute Pancreatitis (3): Vascular Complications
- Recurrent (Relapsing) Pancreatitis
- Chronic Pancreatitis, General
- Chronic Pancreatitis, Signal Intensity Changes and Enhancement Pattern
- Chronic Pancreatitis, Ductal Changes (1): ERCP Classification
- Chronic Pancreatitis, Ductal Changes (2): Early Disease
- Chronic Pancreatitis, Ductal Changes (3): Advanced Disease
- Atypical Ductal Changes in Chronic Pancreatitis
- Complications of Chronic Pancreatitis (1): Pseudocyst
- Complications of Chronic Pancreatitis (2): Other Complications
- Chronic Pancreatitis with Focal Inflammatory Mass

6.3 Traumatic, Postoperative and Iatrogenic Abnormalities

- Pancreatic Duct Injury
- Complications of Pancreatic Transplantation (1): Pancreatitis
- Complications of Pancreatic Transplantation (2): Other Complications
- Complications of Partial Pancreatic Resection

6.4 Malignant Tumors and Tumors with Malignant Potential

- Adenocarcinoma, General
- Adenocarcinoma, Signal Intensity
- Adenocarcinoma, Ductal Changes
- Variant Morphology of Adenocarcinoma (1): Degree Obstruction
- Variant Morphology of Adenocarcinoma (2): Necrosis/Cystic Degeneration
