Contents

Preface

1 National Transport Models: Introduction and Comparative Analysis 1
Lars Lundqvist and Lars-Göran Mattsson

Part I  THE MODEL DEVELOPMENT CONTEXT

2 An Overview of European National Models 19
Hugh Gunn

3 Updating and Extending National Models 35
Andrew Daly

4 National Models: How to Make It Happen. The Case of the Swedish 50
National Model System: SAMPERS
Staffan Widlert

5 General Modelling Approaches: Top-down or Bottom-up? 57
Tom E. Worsley and Russell C.E. Harris

6 Deterministic Time Table Transit Assignment 61
Isabelle Constantin, Michael Florian and Heinz Spiess

Part II  NATIONAL TRANSPORT MODELS

7 Application Areas for the Dutch National Model 81
Frank Hofman
8  The New Swedish National Model – SAMPERS: System and Validation
   Gunnar Johansson Sveder

9  SAMPERS – The New Swedish National Travel Demand Forecasting Tool
   Muriel Beser and Staffan Algers

10 Italian Models: Application and Planned Development
    Francesco Russo

11 PETRA – An Activity-based Approach to Travel Demand Analysis
    Mogens Fosgerau

12 GB Traffic Forecasts – Status and Development
    Tom E. Worsley and Russell C.E. Harris

Part III  EUROPEAN TRANSPORT MODELS

13 Designing the STREAMS Model of Europe
    Ian Williams

14 Tests of Nonlinearity, Modal Captivity and Spatial Competition within the STEMM Multicountry Application for Passengers
    Marc Gaudry

List of Figures

List of Tables

Author Index

Subject Index

Contributors
National Transport Models
Recent Developments and Prospects
Lundqvist, L.; Mattsson, L.-G. (Eds.)
2002, VIII, 204 p., Hardcover
ISBN: 978-3-540-42426-0