Table of Contents

Foreword ................................................................................................................................. V

Introduction

Confronting New Challenges Knut Ipsen and International Humanitarian Law.....3
Volker Epping

Asymmetries with regard to Methods and Means of Warfare

Asymmetrical Warfare and International Humanitarian Law ..........................11
Michael N. Schmitt

‘The end justifies the means’ – Should this be the philosophy?.........................49
William H. Boothby

Comment: Is the Principle of Distinction Outdated?........................................53
Stefan Oeter

Asymmetries and the Identification of Legitimate Military Objectives

Asymmetries and the Identification of Legitimate Military Objectives ........65
W. Hays Parks

Targeting Hearts and Minds: National Will and Other Legitimate Military
Objectives of Modern War ..............................................................................................117
Charles J. Dunlap

The United Kingdom and Legitimate Military Objectives: Current Practice
... and Future Trends?..................................................................................................127
Steven Haines
Table of Contents

The System of Status Groups

The System of Status Groups in International Humanitarian Law .................. 145
Yoram Dinstein

Collateral Damage, Proportionality and Individual International Criminal Responsibility ...................................................................................... 157
Torsten Stein

Do Non-State Actors Challenge International Humanitarian Law? ............. 163
Hans-Joachim Heintze

The Relationship between Individual and State Responsibility

Individual and State Responsibility for Violations of the Ius in Bello:
An Imperfect Balance ................................................................................... 171
Dieter Fleck

Some Comments on the International Responsibility of States.................. 207
Frits Kalshoven

Responsibility for Violations of International Humanitarian Law, Interna-
Andreas Zimmermann

Dissemination and Monitoring Compliance

Dissemination and Monitoring Compliance of International
Humanitarian Law ...................................................................................... 227
Knut Dörmann

Fact-finding as a Means of Ensuring Respect for International
Humanitarian Law ...................................................................................... 249
Michael Bothe

Human Rights Treaty Bodies and Their Potential Role in Monitoring .......... 269
Rainer Hofmann

Contributors .............................................................................................. 273
International Humanitarian Law Facing New Challenges
Symposium in Honour of KNUT IPSEN
Heintschel von Heinegg, W.; Epping, V. (Eds.)
2007, X, 280 p., Hardcover
ISBN: 978-3-540-49089-0