

Contents

Reputation capital – Building and maintaining trust in the 21st century..... 1

by Joachim Klewes and Robert Wreschniok

Introduction 1
Acknowledgements 7

Part I: Reputation in the 21st century – Good or evil?

Trust and reputation in the age of globalisation 11

by Mark Eisenegger

Trust and reputation – Fundamental and indispensable..... 11
The true, the good and the beautiful – Three-dimensional reputation.. 12
Why is reputation important? 15
Regularities 16
In conclusion: The financial market crisis and its consequences 20

Reputation or: How I learned to stop worrying and love the market..... 23

by Jonathan Silberstein-Loeb

Reputation and testimony 24
Reputation and the market 26
Propositions 30
Markets, information, and reputation 31

Part II: The business case for reputation

Recognition or rejection – How a company’s reputation influences stakeholder behaviour 39

by Manfred Schwaiger, Sascha Raithel and Matthias Schloderer

Reputation as a management objective.....	39
Our approach to corporate reputation management.....	42
Reputation and capital market performance.....	46
Reputation and the war for talents.....	49
Conclusion.....	51

What’s measurable gets done – Communication controlling as a prerequisite for a successful reputation management..... 57

by Reimer Stobbe

The basic model of communication controlling.....	57
Reputation in the impact level model of communication controlling ..	68
Conclusion and implementation.....	69

The role of corporate and personal reputations in the global war for talent 73

by Kelvin Thompson

And yet the war for leadership talent rages on.....	73
Talent and the science of assessment.....	74
Reputation matters more than ever.....	75
The search begins.....	77
Why executive search can help.....	80

The CSR myth: true beauty comes from within 83

by Matthias Vonwil and Robert Wreschniok

Corporate social responsibility – an approximation.....	85
CSR as a function of social reputation.....	87
Social reputation in the public’s perception.....	88
Actively cultivating social reputation as a reputation risk.....	92
Beyond CSR: towards a new approach to corporate social responsibility.....	96
Summary: Questioning CSR.....	97

The Brussels reputation story – the interplay of public affairs and reputation 101

by Peter Lochbihler

Reputation and the European Union.....	102
Reputation and public affairs.....	103
How does an organisation’s reputation have an impact on public affairs activities with EU institutions?.....	105
A glance at public affairs in practice	107
What characteristics of a good reputation matter especially in Brussels, and how must an organisation present itself there to enjoy the trust of EU institutions?	109

Part III: The 21st century of reputation crisis

Managing reputational risk – A cindynic approach..... 115

by Sophie Gaultier-Gaillard, Jean-Paul Louisot and Jenny Rayner

The essential triangle: the organisation, its message and its partners’ expectations	115
The mechanisms of reputation.....	119
Potential dissonances impacting negatively reputation	127
Reputational risk management – A vital approach within the ERM framework	136

Managing reputational risk – Case studies 143

by Alex Hindson and Jean-Paul Louisot

Case study 1 – Tylenol product recall – Treating contamination?	144
Case study 2 – Coca-Cola product contamination – Leaving a bad taste.	149
Case study 3 – Mattel recall – Playing with safety?	152
Summary of the lessons learned from the cases	157

Managing reputational risk – From theory to practice..... 161

by Sophie Gaultier-Gaillard, Jean-Paul Louisot and Jenny Rayner

What is reputation?.....	162
Why is reputation valuable?	163
Implementing risk management for the risks to reputation	168

Reputation and regulation	179
by Hans Caspar von der Crone and Johannes Vetsch
The mechanism of reputation	179
Emergence of regulation.....	181
Regulation and risk awareness	182
Re-establishing the reputation	184
Regulation of financial markets.....	185
Self-regulation and government regulation	187
Measuring risks to reputation	197
by Frank Herkenhoff
The location of reputation risks	197
The basic model of risk management	198
Theoretical basis: selection research	198
The process of risk management	203
Risk management	210
Crisis management in the media society – Communicative integrity as the key to safeguarding reputation in a crisis	215
by Ansgar Thießen
The value of reputation for organisations.....	215
Crisis situations as a threat for reputation.....	218
Safeguarding corporate reputation through crisis communications ...	220
Conclusions and outlook	226
Getting the stain out of “sustainable brands”	235
by Jeremy Cohen
In PR terms – Green is red hot	236
Green branding – A new industry.....	237
Beyond PR – The cardinal sin	240
The 3 “Es”	244
Conversational marketing.....	246
In conclusion	247

“Our reputation is at stake” – Corporate communications in the light of the global economic downturn 249

by Dirk Popp

This crisis is especially vicious. Isn't it?	249
Media in downturn – Crisis communication in upturn	250
Globalisation and new media act as accelerants	252
“Day-to-day business is eating up strategy”	253
Crisis communications in practice: Proven instruments have to be deployed strategically	254
“Telling bad news and keeping morale high”	258

Part IV: New perspectives for reputation management in the 21st century

Community reputation communicates change to the world 263

by Joachim Kuss

“Reputation is people's business”	263
“Community reputation is a phenomenon of globalisation”	265
“If you concentrate too much on your image, you endanger your reputation”	267
“Use and communicate the full range of events”	269
“Community branding is the core of reputation management”	270
Practical rules for community reputation management	271

EU accession: Turkey's reputation on its journey towards EU membership 273

by Arzuhan Doğan Yalçındağ and Julia Schankin

How does country reputation management work	274
The TUSIAD campaign: Managing Turkey's reputation	276
The role of the media	277
The role of opinion leaders	278
Measuring a country's reputation	279
Dialogue as a trust building measure	281

Consistency: a proven reputation strategy. How companies can optimise their message..... 287

by Joachim Klewes

Corporate Messaging – A challenge similar to herding cats?	287
Reputation – A complex concept.....	288
Observing the reputation building process –
The Reputation Experiment.....	290
Strategies for successful corporate messaging	294

The Agora of the 21st century: On the invention of many-to-one communication 299

by Robert Wreschniok

“Onwards comrades, we have to go back”	301
Reputation opportunities and risks in the media society	302
The Agora of the 21st century	304
The democratisation of communications.....	305
Are companies ready for many-to-one dialogue?.....	307
People seek dialogue	308

The leader's role in managing reputation..... 311

by Gary Davies and Rosa Chun

The potential role.....	311
The spill-over from leader to corporate reputation.....	312
The curse of the charismatic CEO	315
The personality of the leader	317
The leader's role in a crisis.....	318
The role of other leaders.....	320

Coca-Cola Hellenic reputation case study 325

by Jens Rupp

Reputation and trust.....	328
Building reputation responsibility	330
Corporate social responsibility	331
Watching reputation grow	336

Never underestimate the importance of details.....339

by Tomaso Galli

Building reputation in luxury today..... 339
 The role of the fashion press..... 340
 Critical assets for a luxury brand reputation..... 341
 Luxury brand strategies 343
 Luxury brands and corporate communication 344
 Learning from the luxury business 345

Is there no prescription? Reputation in the pharmaceutical industry347

by Andrea Fischer

All just a question of communication? 349
 A long way: Approaches to improving reputation..... 350
 We market our products according to strict rules 351
 We produce safe products..... 353
 We care about others 355
 We can work better 357

Part V: Reputation strategies for the 21st century

Who wants to be a millionaire? Investment strategies for reputation management in the 21st century363

by Robert Wreschniok and Joachim Klewes

Reputation as a strategic investment..... 365
 Return versus risk 376
 One man, one company, two sectors: The first reputation millionaires of the 21st century 381

Part VI: Appendix

About the authors387

Index.....393

<http://www.springer.com/978-3-642-01629-5>

Reputation Capital

Building and Maintaining Trust in the 21st Century

Klewes, J.; Wreschniok, R. (Eds.)

2009, XI, 408 p., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-642-01629-5