Table of Contents

List of Abbrevations.................................................................................................................. 7

1 Introduction .......................................................................................................................... 9
   Maria Grazia Martino

2 Nazi Germany and Religion—Some Thoughts on the Legal Framework
   Set by Religion Policy in a Polycratic Government System........................................... 55
   Dirk Schuster

3 Does Islam belong to Germany? On the Political Situation of Islam in Germany .................. 71
   Ufuk Olgun

4 Switzerland: No Religious Peace without Public Arrangements—or,
   Why the Catholic Church in Switzerland has to adopt Provisions from Swiss Democracy, as Exemplified by the Canton of Zurich ......................................... 85
   Florian Schmid and Indrani Das Schmid

5 Denominational Influence on Religion Policy after the State Church?
   Evidence from Greece, Italy, and Sweden........................................................................... 97
   Maria Grazia Martino

6 Dealing with Religious Diversity: The Aims and Realities of Religious Education in Sweden ........................................................................................................ 119
   Anders Sjöborg

7 European Turks in between Local and Transnational Islamic Networks:
   The Hizmet Movement as a Translocal Actor in the Religiosity of Turks in France and Germany ......................................................................................... 133
   Sumeyye Ulu Sametoglu

8 Conclusion .............................................................................................................................. 155
   Maria Grazia Martino

About the Authors .................................................................................................................. 179
The State as an Actor in Religion Policy
Policy Cycle and Governance Perspectives on Institutionalized Religion
Martino, M.G. (Ed.)
2015, VIII, 171 p., Softcover