Contents

Part I  Setting the Scene: Views on Age and Aging

1  Introduction ................................................... 3
   Maartje Schermer and Wim Pinxten

2  Built to Last? .................................................. 13
   Wim Pinxten

3  The Anti-Aging Movement ....................................... 29
   John Vincent

4  Do We Need an Anthropology of the Aging Person and What Should it Look Like? ........................................... 41
   Wim Dekkers

5  The Implicit Anthropology of Bioethics and the Problem of the Aging Person ........................................... 59
   Søren Holm

6  On Old Age—Impressions of a Geriatrician ....................... 73
   Bert Keizer

7  You don’t Grow Old on Your Own .................................. 79
   Frans Meulenberg and Wim Pinxten

Part II  Taking Care: Caring for Elderly in an Aging Society

8  Aging Beyond Frailty: The Future of Old Age ..................... 91
   Cees Hertogh

9  Former Wishes and Current Desires .................................. 105
   Dorothea P. Touwen
Contents

10 Death Wishes of the Elderly: Is There a Task for Doctors? ............ 119
   Govert den Hartogh

11 Imagining Good Aging .................................................. 135
   Frits de Lange

12 Justice and the Elderly ................................................. 147
   Anders Schinkel

Part III  Looking Ahead: Ethics and Prolongevity

13 Ethical Perspectives in Biogerontology ............................... 173
   Sebastian Sethe and João Pedro de Magalhães

14 Immortal Ethics ............................................................ 189
   John Harris

15 Will You... When I’m Sixty Four? .................................... 197
   Inez de Beaufort

16 Old Age Is An Incurable Disease—or Is It? ........................ 209
   Maartje Schermer

17 A “Longevity Dividend” for All? .................................... 225
   Hans-Jörg Ehni

Part IV  Choosing Direction: Healthcare Policy and Ethics

18 Healthy Aging and Personal Responsibility ....................... 239
   Alies Struijs and Marieke ten Have

19 Biogerontology: A Promising Route to Cost Containment in Healthcare? .......................... 251
   Laura Capitaine and Guido Pennings

20 Aging Under the Looking-Glass ...................................... 267
   Göran Hermerén

Index ................................................................. 291
Ethics, Health Policy and (Anti-) Aging: Mixed Blessings
Schermer, M.; Pinxten, W. (Eds.)
2013, XIV, 298 p., Hardcover
ISBN: 978-94-007-3869-0