Contents

Part I  Introduction

1 Prelude to Practice: Introducing a Practice Based Approach to Forest and Nature Governance .................. 3
   Bas Arts, Jelle Behagel, Séverine van Bommel, Jessica de Koning and Esther Turnhout

2 From Practical Science to a Practice Based Approach: A Short History of Forest Policy Studies ................. 23
   K. Freerk Wiersum, Bas Arts and Jim van Laar

Part II  Rethinking Institutions

3 Bricolage Practices in Local Forestry ......................... 49
   Jessica de Koning and Charlotte Benneker

   Jelle Behagel and Sonja van der Arend

5 Invited Spaces and Informal Practices in Participatory Community Forest Management in India ............ 89
   Sailaja Nandigama
Part III  The Global–Local Nexus

6  Global Forest Governance: Multiple Practices of Policy Performance .............................. 111
   Bas Arts and Innocent Babili

7  The Practice of Interaction Management: Enhancing Synergies Among Multilateral REDD+ Institutions .............................. 133
   Ingrid Visseren-Hamakers and Patrick Verkooijen

8  How do Forest Markets Work? Exploring a Practice Perspective ........................................ 151
   Marjanke A. Hoogstra-Klein

Part IV  Representing Nature?

9  Globalising Biodiversity: Scientific Practices of Scaling and Databasing .............................. 171
   Susan Boonman-Berson and Esther Turnhout

   Arjen Buijs, Birgit Elands and Ramona van Marwijk

11  Creating Scientific Narratives: Experiences in Constructing and Interweaving Empirical and Theoretical Plots .................... 217
   Séverine van Bommel and Mariëlle van der Zouwen

Part V  Conclusion

12  The Promise of Practice: The Value of the Practice Based Approach for Forest and Nature Governance Studies ........ 243
   Jelle Behagel, Bas Arts, Séverine van Bommel, Jessica de Koning and Esther Turnhout

Author Biographies ................................................................. 257

Index ...................................................................................... 263
Forest and Nature Governance
A Practice Based Approach
Arts, B.; Behagel, J.; van Bommel, S.; de Koning, J.;
Turnhout, E. (Eds.)
2013, X, 266 p., Hardcover