Contents

Part I  Introduction

1  The Climate–Migration Nexus: A Reorientation  .................. 3
   Thomas Faist and Jeanette Schade

Part II  Methodologies and Methods

2  Migration and Climate Change: Toward an Integrated
Assessment of Sensitivity  ........................................... 29
   Richard Black, Dominic Kniveton and Kerstin Schmidt-Verkerk

3  How Demographic Change and Migration Influence
Community-Level Adaptation to Climate Change:
Examples from Rural Eastern Ontario and Nunavut, Canada .... 55
   Robert McLeman and James Ford

4  A Methodology for Assessing Patterns of Labour
Migration in Mountain Communities Exposed to Water Hazards . . 81
   Soumyadeep Banerjee, Jean-Yves Gerlitz and Dominic Kniveton

5  Which Household Characteristics Help Mitigate the Effects of Extreme Weather Events? Evidence from the 1998 Floods in Bangladesh ........................................ 101
   Tanvir Ahmed Uddin

Part III  Areas of Concern: Politics and Human Rights

6  Defining Environmental Migration in the Climate Change Era:
Problem, Consequence or Solution?  ............................ 145
   Chloé Anne Vlassopoulos
7 Challenges and Pitfalls of Resettlement: Pacific Experiences ........ 165
Volker Böge

8 Climate Change and Planned Relocation:
   Risks and a Proposal for Safeguards ......................... 183
Jeanette Schade

9 Disasters, Displacement and Protection:
   Challenges, Shortcomings and Ways Forward ............... 207
Megan Bradley and Roberta Cohen

Part IV Conclusion

10 Entitlements, Capabilities and Human Rights ............... 231
Jeanette Schade

Index ................................................................. 255
Disentangling Migration and Climate Change
Methodologies, Political Discourses and Human Rights
Faist, Th.; Schade, J. (Eds.)
2013, XIX, 259 p., Hardcover
ISBN: 978-94-007-6207-7