Contents

1 Introduction ................................................................................................................................. 1
   Jijiao Zhang and Howard Duncan

Part I Migration and Its Impacts in China and Asia ................................................................. 9

2 “Wind over Water”: Some Anthropological Thoughts on East Asian Migration ......................................................... 11
   David W. Haines

3 Flows of People and the Canada-China Relationship in the 21st Century ............................................................. 25
   Kenny Zhang

4 International Migration and Economic Development in Northeast China—the Acquisition and Transfer of New Migrant Capital .................................................................................. 51
   Outi Luova

5 Asylum Seekers in Hong Kong: The Paradoxes of Lives Lived on Hold ................................................................. 73
   Gordon Mathew

Part II International Migration and Marriage .............................................................................. 87

6 Socio-Cultural Consequences of International Marriages in Korea: Emergence of Multiculturalism? ................................. 89
   Hyup Choi

7 Constructing “Home” across National Boundaries: A Case of Pakistani-Japanese Marriage ........................................ 103
   Masako Kudo
8 How International is International: A Study on International Marriage Migration in Asia ............................................. 113
AKM Ahsan Ullah

Part III Migrant’s Education and Employment ........................................ 131

9 Immigration and Diversity: Exploring Immigrant Parents’ Contributions to Teacher Education .............................................. 133
Yan Guo

10 Intra-metropolitan Opportunity Structure and Immigrant Self-employment .................................................. 149
Cathy Yang Liu

Part IV Chinese Migration in Other Countries ........................................... 173

Chunfen Shao

12 Old and New Chinese Organizations in Suriname ............................... 189
Paul B. Tjon Sie Fat

13 A Biographical Study of Chinese Immigrants in Belgium: Strategies for Localisation .................................................. 207
Li-Chuan LIU HUANG

14 New Chinese Immigrants to New Zealand: A PRC Dimension .......... 229
Phoebe H. Li

Part V Return Migration ............................................................................. 245

15 Return Migration: New Characters and Theoretical Models .......... 247
Ding Yueya

16 Transnational Migration in the Age of Globalization: Chinese Canadians in Beijing ......................................................... 265
Shibao Guo
Migration in China and Asia
Experience and Policy
Zhang, J.; Duncan, H. (Eds.)
2014, VII, 278 p. 29 illus., 23 illus. in color., Hardcover
ISBN: 978-94-017-8758-1