Contents

Part I  Poincaré’s Philosophy of Science

Portrait of Henri Poincaré as a Young Philosopher:

The Formative Years (1860 –1873) .......................................................... 3
Laurent Rollet

Poincaré and the Invention of Convention ............................................. 25
Janet Folina

The Third Way Epistemology: A Re-characterization

of Poincaré’s Conventionalism................................................................. 47
María de Paz

Poincaré, Indifferent Hypotheses and Metaphysics ............................... 67
Antonio A.P. Videira

Part II  Poincaré on the Foundations of Mathematics

Poincaré in Göttingen.......................................................... 83
Reinhard Kahle

Poincaré and the Principles of the Calculus....................................... 101
Augusto J. Franco de Oliveira

Does the French Connection (Poincaré, Lautman) Provide

Some Insights Facing the Thesis That Meta-mathematics Is an Exception to the Slogan That Mathematics Concerns Structures? ...... 113

Gerhard Heinzmann
Part III  Poincaré on the Foundations of Physics

Henri Poincaré: The Status of Mechanical Explanations and the Foundations of Statistical Mechanics ........................................ 127
João Príncipe

Henri Poincaré: A Scientist Inspired by His Philosophy .................... 153
Isabel Serra

Poincaré on the Construction of Space-Time ................................. 167
Robert DiSalle

About the Authors ........................................................................ 185

Index ............................................................................................. 187