Contents

1 Introduction: Positive Psychology of Religion Across Traditions and Beliefs ................................................................. 1
   Chu Kim-Prieto

Part I  Positive Psychology within the Context of Specific Religions

2 Virtues That Transcend: Positive Psychology in Jewish Texts and Tradition ................................................................. 21
   Eliezer Schnall, Mark Schiffman, and Aaron Cherniak

3 The Contributions of Christian Perspectives and Practices to Positive Psychology ......................................................... 47
   Everett L. Worthington Jr., Caroline R. Lavelock,
   Daryl R. Van Tongeren, Charlotte van OyenWitvliet,
   Brandon J. Griffin, Chelsea L. Greer, David J. Jennings II,
   Yin Lin, Kayla Jordan, and Man Yee Ho

4 Religiosity and Well-Being in a Muslim Context ...................... 71
   Ahmed M. Abdel-Khalek

5 Fostering Meaning, Social Connection, and Well-Being Through Hindu Beliefs and Practices ........................................... 87
   Maia J Young and Rakesh Sarin

6 Buddhism and Positive Psychology ........................................ 101
   Julia L. Cassaniti

7 Sikhism and Positive Psychology ........................................... 125
   Muninder K. Ahluwalia, Anna Flores Locke, and Steven Hylton

8 American Indian Traditional Ways: Convergence and Divergence with Positive Psychology ........................................... 137
   Leah Rouse
Part II  Variations in the Paths to Positivity and Religiosity

9 Religiosity and Subjective Well-Being: An International Perspective ................................................. 163
Louis Tay, Miao Li, David Myers, and Ed Diener

10 Religious/Spiritual Meaning Systems: Multiple Pathways to Well-Being ............................................. 177
Crystal L. Park and Amy Hale

11 Mindfulness, Consciousness, Spirituality, and Well-Being ................................................................. 203
Emily L.B. Lykins

12 Mind-Body Practices and the Neuro-psychology of Wellbeing .......................................................... 227
Patricia L. Gerbarg, Liselotte Gootjes, and Richard P. Brown

13 Religion, Emotion Regulation, and Well-Being ....................................................................................... 247
Allon Vishkin, Yochanan Bigman, and Maya Tamir

14 Humility and Religion: Benefits, Difficulties, and a Model of Religious Tolerance ................................ 271
Elissa Woodruff, Daryl R. Van Tongeren, Stacey McElroy, Don E. Davis, and Joshua N. Hook

15 Gratitude and Spirituality: A Review of Theory and Research .............................................................. 287
Derrick Wirtz, Cameron L. Gordon, and Juliann Stalls

16 Religion and Forgiveness of Others ......................................................................................................... 303
Mark S. Rye and Cara F. McCabe

17 Religious Ecstasy and Other Intense Emotions ....................................................................................... 319
Ralph W. Hood Jr.

18 Spiritual Resilience and Struggle Following the Experience of a Stroke ................................................ 337
Margaret Feuille Bockrath, Kenneth I. Pargament, and Sharon K. Ostwald

19 Religiosity and Immigrant Family Narratives in Korean American Young Adults .................................. 355
Sumie Okazaki and Nancy Abelmann
Religion and Spirituality Across Cultures
Kim-Prieto, C. (Ed.)
2014, VI, 369 p. 4 illus., Hardcover
ISBN: 978-94-017-8949-3