

Contents

Part I Nature and Knowledge

1	Elements for a Philosophy of Individuation .....	3
1.1	The Individual as a System: Structure and Operation .....	3
1.2	Metastability, (Non)Identity and (Non)Causality .....	6
1.3	Transduction, Singularity, Field .....	10
1.4	Allagmatics, Topology and Chronology .....	13
	References .....	18
2	Reforming the Concepts of Form and Information .....	21
2.1	Criticism of the ‘Hylomorphic’ Concept of Form ( Gestalttheorie ) .....	22
2.2	Criticism of the ‘Technological’ Concept of Information (Cybernetics) .....	25
2.3	Reforming the Concept of Information .....	27
2.4	Royaumont: All the Paradigms of Information .....	31
	References .....	34
3	The Object of a Philosophy of Individuation .....	35
3.1	The Pre-individual. Quantum Discontinuity and Phases of Being .....	36
3.2	The Phenomenological Legacy: Nature and Sense in Merleau-Ponty .....	39
3.3	The Debate at the Société Française de Philosophie .....	43
3.4	Between Phenomenology and Positivism? .....	47
	References .....	49
4	Subject and Method of a Philosophy of Individuation .....	51
4.1	Ontogenesis of the Subject: Transindividual and Signification .....	51
4.2	Individuation of the Subject’s Knowledge: A Question of Method .....	55

4.3	Invention, Analogy, Intuition and Bergson .....	57
4.4	Unfolding Sciences: The Emergence of a Philosophy of Individuation .....	61
	References .....	66

Part II Organism and Society

5	From Life to Signification .....	69
5.1	The System Organism-Milieu: Beyond Homeostasis .....	71
5.2	From Affectivity to Emotion .....	78
5.3	Emotion and Transindividual Individuation (After Goldstein and Sartre) .....	82
5.4	Signification and the Emergence of the Subject and the Collective .....	84
	References .....	87
6	Genesis and Structure of the Collective: The Transindividual .....	89
6.1	The Terms of the Problem: Community and Society .....	90
6.2	In-Group, Out-Group and Group Personality .....	92
6.3	Belief, Work, Language .....	98
6.3.1	Belief .....	98
6.3.2	Work .....	101
6.3.3	Language .....	105
6.4	The Closed/Open Paradigm .....	106
	References .....	109
7	Social Homeostasis and the Exceeding Normativity .....	111
7.1	The Critique of Wiener's Social Automaton .....	113
7.2	Society as 'Machine and Life' in Canguilhem .....	116
7.3	A Biological Model for Social Regulation? .....	118
7.4	The Transductive Function of the Individual .....	121
	References .....	124
8	Biological, Technical and Social Normativity .....	127
8.1	Leroi-Gourhan: Tools and Technical Milieu .....	128
8.2	Biological and Technical Normativity .....	132
8.3	Values and Norms: The Reflexivity of Culture .....	135
8.4	The Political Function of the Technician .....	139
	References .....	142

Part III Technicity, Sacredness and Politics

9	Techno-Symbolic Function .....	145
9.1	The 'Cycle of the Image' in Imagination et invention .....	146
9.2	Imaginary/Symbolic .....	149
9.3	The Problem of Symbolic Invention .....	153
9.4	Between Phenomenology and Life Sciences .....	158
	References .....	162

10 Magic, Technics and Culture .....	165
10.1 For a Théorie général de la magie in MEOT .....	166
10.2 The Second Phase-Shift and the Sacred Field of Politics.....	171
10.3 Psycho-sociologie de la technicité : Isomorphism and Asymmetry .....	176
10.4 Culture et technique : Acceleration and Conjuncture.....	183
References.....	188
11 The Mysticism of (Technical) Evolution .....	191
11.1 Mechanics and Mysticism in Durkheim and Bergson.....	192
11.2 Simondon’s Pedagogical-Political Project .....	196
11.3 Technical Evolution and Les limites du progrès humain .....	204
11.4 The Transindividual Historicity of Cultures.....	209
References.....	215
12 Regulation and Invention: Simondon’s Political Philosophy .....	217
12.1 Is There a Theory of the Political in Gilbert Simondon?.....	218
12.2 Philosophical Thought as an Archetype .....	222
12.3 Imagining the Collective Without Human Nature .....	229
12.4 For a Political Regulation of Collective Invention .....	235
References.....	240
Appendix .....	243
List of Abbreviations.....	243
Works of Gilbert Simondon .....	244
Brief Note on the Editorial Vicissitudes of Individuation .....	248
Index .....	249

<http://www.springer.com/978-94-017-9830-3>

Epistemology and Political Philosophy in Gilbert
Simondon

Individuation, Technics, Social Systems

Bardin, A.

2015, XI, 251 p., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-94-017-9830-3