Contents

Part I  No Exit from EU Market Law for Public Services

1  Introduction: The Constitutionalisation of the EU Concept of SGEI as a Story of Exit, Voice and Loyalty for Public Services in EU Law ......................................................... 3

1.1  The Expansion of EU Law in the Field of Public Services, Including Social Services: Crucial Legal Issues Unsolved .......... 4

1.1.1  The CJEU’s Use of the EU Concept of SGEI in Article 106(2) TFEU to Address Member States’ Concerns on the Expansion of EU Law in Their Fields of Competence .............................................. 6

1.1.2  The Progressive and (Too?) Subtle Approach of the CJEU: Two Important Legal Questions ......................... 9

1.1.3  SGEI: EU Debate and Constitutionalisation Through the Treaty of Lisbon 2007/2009 .......................... 11

1.1.4  Emerging EU Governance of Social Services in EU Procurement and State Aid Rules: The Unclear Relation Between the Quality Framework for SGI and the Treaty Framework on SGEI .................. 15

1.1.5  Systems of Choice for Social Services: Showing the Way? ................................................................. 17

1.2  Aims and Structure of the Book ...................................................... 22

1.2.1  Part I: No Exit from EU Market Law for Public Services ............................................................... 24

1.2.2  Part II: SGEI as a Constitutional Voice for Public Services in EU Law ............................................. 26

1.2.3  Part III: Cost of Loyalty, the Relationship Between EU Procurement and State Aid Legislation on Social Services and the Treaty Rules on SGEI, with a Case Study on Swedish Systems of Choice ......................... 28

References ............................................................................................................. 31
Part II SGEI as a Constitutional Voice for Public Services in EU Law

2 “Economic Activity”: Criteria and Relevance in the Fields of EU Internal Market Law, Competition Law and Procurement Law

2.1 “Economic Activity”: “One Test” Determining the Applicability of the Treaty Market Rules to Activities in the Public Sector

2.2 “Economic Activity” in the Field of Internal Market Law: Relevance and Criteria

2.2.1 The Relationship Between the Notion of “Economic Activity” and the Concepts of Entry of the Treaty Rules on Free Movement

2.2.2 The Meaning of the Notion of “Economic Activity” for the Purposes of the Treaty Rules on Free Movement

2.3 “Economic Activity” in the Field of Competition: Relevance and Criteria

2.3.1 Relevance of the Fact that an Activity Can Be Economic for the Applicability of the Treaty Competition Rules

2.3.2 Criteria Determining that an Activity Is Economic for the Purpose of the Treaty Competition Rules

2.4 EU Procurement Law: The Concepts of “Service” and “Undertaking” Meet in the Notion of “Economic Transaction”

2.5 Conclusions: Closure of “Exit” from EU Law for Public Services Enhances the Need of Member States’ “Voice”

2.5.1 Legal Meaning of “Economic Activity” as a Unitary Notion of EU Market Law

2.5.2 Relevance of the Economic Character of an Activity/Transaction for the Applicability of EU Rules on Free Movement and Competition

2.5.3 Exit from EU Law Closed for Public Services Within Member States: An EU Constitutional Issue of Competence

References

3 The Importance of SGEI in the Post-Lisbon Treaties

3.1 The Concept of SGEI Promoted as a Treaty “Voice” for Public Services

3.1.1 Article 106(2) TFEU: Comparative Advantages of a Provision Allowing Member States to Retain Powers

3.1.2 From Amsterdam to Lisbon: 10 Years of Debate and a Compromise on SGEI in the Treaties
3.1.3 New Framework on SGEI in the Post-Lisbon Treaties: SGEI “Voice” ........................................... 80
3.2 The Political Importance of SGEI for the Foundational Principles of the EU ........................................ 95
  3.2.1 Relationship Between the Treaty Framework on SGEIs and the Values and Objectives of the EU ............. 95
  3.2.2 SGEI: An Appropriate Instrument to Develop Public Services in a “Highly Competitive Social Market Economy”? ................................................. 103
  3.2.3 Conclusions ......................................................... 108
References ................................................................ 110

4 SGEI as a Ground for a Special Regime in the Case Law of the CJEU Related to Public Services ......................... 113
  4.1 The Case Law of the CJEU Directly Based on Article 106(2) TFEU ..................................................... 116
    4.1.1 SGEI in the Meaning of Article 106(2) TFEU: Only Control of Manifest Error .................................. 117
    4.1.2 Standard of Review Under Article 106(2) TFEU: From Derogation to Balance .............................. 121
    4.1.3 Horizontal Scope of Article 106(2) TFEU ................................................................................. 129
    4.1.4 Entrustment ............................................................. 145
  4.2 The Case Law of the CJEU Transposed from Article 106(2) TFEU ..................................................... 147
    4.2.1 Altmark: No State Aid for Proportional Compensation of Public Service Obligations .................. 147
    4.2.2 Public Service Tasks (or SGEI Tasks?) and Exemptions from EU Procurement Rules .................. 148
    4.2.3 A Lenient Review of Restrictions of the Free Movement of Services Justified by Public Service Tasks: Hartlauer ......................................................... 154
    4.2.4 Lenient Review of Restrictions of the Freedom of Establishment Justified by Public Service Tasks: Libert: Lenient Review of Restriction of the Free Movement of Capital Justified by Public Service Obligations ................................................. 159
  4.3 Conclusions ................................................................. 165
References ................................................................ 168

5 Meaning of the EU Concept of SGEI Emerging from the CJEU Case Law ......................................................... 171
  5.1 Clear Understanding of the EU Concept of SGEI in Soft Law and Secondary Law? ................................. 174
    5.1.1 The Commission’s Understanding of the Concepts of SGI and SGEI .............................................. 174
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>5.1.2</td>
<td>SGEI’s Definition in the Services Directive, A(nother) Source of Confusion to Understand the EU Concept of SGEI</td>
<td>179</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.1.3</td>
<td>Academic Approaches of the Notion of SGEI</td>
<td>181</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.1.4</td>
<td>Some Signs of Conceptual Confusion on the Core Elements of the SGEI Concept</td>
<td>182</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.2</td>
<td>Out of Confusion: Core Elements of the SGEI Concept</td>
<td>186</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.2.1</td>
<td>SG(E)I: It Is Enough that the Activity Can Be Economic</td>
<td>186</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.2.2</td>
<td>“Obligation” Rather Than “Entrustment” as a Core Part of the SGEI Concept</td>
<td>190</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.2.3</td>
<td>A General Interest of “Public Service”</td>
<td>195</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.2.4</td>
<td>Relationship Between SGEIs and Universal Service Obligations (USO)</td>
<td>198</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.2.5</td>
<td>Summing Up: The Relationship Between SGEI Missions, Tasks and Obligations</td>
<td>200</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.3</td>
<td>Conclusions</td>
<td>204</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>References</td>
<td>205</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6</td>
<td>Conclusions of Part II: SGEI Emerges as a Broad “Voice” in EU Constitutional Law</td>
<td>207</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6.1</td>
<td>The EU Concept SGEI Emerges as a Broad Constitutional Concept</td>
<td>208</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6.2</td>
<td>SGEI Is Approached by the CJEU All the More as an EU Constitutional (Legal) Concept and All the Less as a “National” Political Concept</td>
<td>210</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6.3</td>
<td>Some Risks if the CJEU Is Too Clear on Its Understanding of the EU Concept of SGEI</td>
<td>213</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6.4</td>
<td>Concluding with a Burning Issue: Which Normative Role Is Left for Article 106(2) TFEU in the European Framework Governing Public Services?</td>
<td>217</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>References</td>
<td>218</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Part III</td>
<td>The Cost of Loyalty, the Relationship Between EU Procurement and State Aid Legislation on Social Services and the Treaty Rules on SGEI, with a Case Study on Swedish Systems of Choice</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7</td>
<td>EU Legislation on Public Procurement and State Aid: What Is the Pressure on Member States to Enforce SGEI Principles in the Field of Social Services?</td>
<td>223</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7.1</td>
<td>The 2014 Procurement Directives</td>
<td>226</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7.1.1</td>
<td>General Features</td>
<td>227</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7.1.2</td>
<td>Explicit and Implicit Connections to the Treaty Principles on SGEI and NESGI</td>
<td>228</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7.1.3</td>
<td>Lighter Procurement Regime for Social Services: Implicit Acknowledgement of Their SGEI Missions</td>
<td>235</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
7.2 The Commission’s State Aid Rules on Public Service Compensation of Social Services .......................... 240
  7.2.1 Social Services in the 2005 SGEI Package .............. 242
  7.2.2 A First State Aid Package but Much Legal Uncertainty Emerging from the Commissions’ Decision Practice on State Aid in the Field of Social Services ....................................................... 244
  7.2.3 Summing up on the Commission’s Approach of State Aid Cases in the Field of Social Services ............ 258
  7.2.4 Some Important Issues Related to Social Services in the 2011 SGEI Package ............................. 260

7.3 Conclusions ......................................................... 266
References ................................................................. 270

8 Social Services Under the Competence of Swedish Local and Regional Authorities: SGEI? ............................... 273
  8.1 Do Social Services Under LRAs’ Competence Constitute SGI? ......................................................... 275
    8.1.1 General Interest Central for LRAs’ Competence in the Local Government Act .......................... 276
    8.1.2 LRAs’ General and Special Competence for Social Services ...................................................... 280
    8.1.3 Public Authorities’ Duty to Secure and Promote Social Rights: A “Principle” of Swedish Constitutional Law ................................................................. 282
    8.1.4 Preliminary Conclusion ............................................ 288
  8.2 Are Social Services Within LRAs’ Competence Covered by EU Law on Free Movement and Competition (Including State Aid)? ................................................. 288
    8.2.1 Organisation of Social Services Under LRA’s Competence with a Focus on Systems of Choice ....... 289
    8.2.2 Lack of Visibility in Swedish Law of Social Services’ Economic Character for the Purpose of EU Law .................................................................................. 291
  8.3 Conclusions ................................................................. 295
References ................................................................. 296

9 Compatibility Between EU Secondary Law on SGEIs and Systems of Choice in Swedish Law: The Cases of Elderly Care and School Education ................................................. 297
  9.1 Elderly Home Care Provided Under the Act on Systems of Choice (LOV) ........................................... 299
    9.1.1 Regulation ................................................................... 300
    9.1.2 Applicability of Swedish Competition Rules to Elderly Home Care Services in LOV-Based Systems: The Conflict-Solving Rule .............................................. 301
9.1.3  Applicability of EU State Aid Rules to Elderly Home Care Services in LOV-Based Systems          303
9.1.4  Does Elderly Home Care Include SGEI Missions?                                          305
9.1.5  Risk of State Aid Under Article 107(1) TFEU                                      308
9.1.6  Compliance of Elderly Home Care in LOV-Systems with the 2011 SGEI Package              312
9.1.7  Definition of Public Service Tasks and Compensation Mechanisms in LOV-Based Systems for Elderly Home Care: Some Important Issues                   313

9.2 School Education in the Swedish System of Choice                                      319
9.2.1  School Education in Swedish Law: A Right and an Obligation                         319
9.2.2  Regulation and Organisation of the School System in Sweden: General Features         320
9.2.3  Are Swedish Schools Covered by Swedish and EU Law on Competition, Including State Aid?   322
9.2.4  Financing of Schools in Free Choice System: Risk of State Aid?                      325
9.2.5  Municipal and Independent Schools’ Public Service Tasks: SGEI Tasks?                 330
9.2.6  Does School Education Provided in Free Choice Comply with the 2011 SGEI Package?         332
9.2.7  A Very Inconvenient Question: Has School Education in Public Systems Become a Service Within the Meaning of Article 57 TFEU?                     334

9.3 Conclusions                                                                                     336

References                                                                                       339

10 Conclusions of Part III: EU Market Governance of Social Services a Democratic Issue             341
10.1  What Place Does the EU Legislator Give to the Treaty Principles on SGEI in EU Legislation Harmonizing the Market for Social Services?                  342
10.2  Can EU Rules on Procurement and State Aid Applying to Social Services Affect Their Liberalisation in the Member States?                              348
10.3  Political Concerns that the Treaty Principles on SGEI May Hinder the Development of Social Service Markets          352
10.4  A Democratic Issue                                                                          354

References                                                                                       356

Cases and Decisions                                                             357

Bibliography                                                                        363

Index                                                                               371
Services of General Economic Interest as a Constitutional Concept of EU Law
Wehlander, C.
2016, XVI, 374 p. 1 illus., Hardcover
A product of T.M.C. Asser Press