

Instructions for Authors

Proposal submission:—

The volumes of the book series are edited volumes and manuscripts are usually solicited by the respective volume editors.

All proposals get peer reviewed (single blind) and should be submitted online.

Ethical requirements:

Authors need to disclose any conflict of interest they might have, funding sources and in addition have to confirm that experiments described in the chapter involving humans or animals were conducted by respecting the corresponding ethical guidelines and that informed consent was obtained in case humans were involved. Authors should include these statements in a separate section entitled “Compliance with Ethical Standards” after the acknowledgements and before the references section as outlined in the Book Ethics Policy, to be downloaded from the website.

Authors have to follow this Book Ethics Policy.

Manuscripts are checked for plagiarism.

Research Data Policy:

Datasets that are assigned digital object identifiers (DOIs) by a data repository may be cited in the reference list. Data citations should include the minimum information recommended by DataCite: authors, title, publisher (repository name), identifier, <https://datacite.org/>.

Springer Nature provides a research data policy support service for authors and editors, which can be contacted at researchdata@springernature.com.

This service provides advice on research data policy compliance and on finding research data repositories. It is independent of journal, book and conference proceedings editorial offices and does not advise on specific manuscripts.

Manuscript preparation guidelines:

Please follow our standard Manuscript guidelines for English books and the Key style points. The documents can be downloaded at: <https://www.springer.com/us/authors-editors/book-authors-editors/resources-guidelines/book-manuscript-guidelines>
