1. The review should be 1500-2000 words for a review of a single book, but should be longer for multiple books. The review should not be a simple summary of the book. It should be critical, yet constructive, and should avoid material that can be considered libelous in nature. The review should mention how the book compares to other related books. Be sure to mention what types of people would be most interested in the book and how it might be used in the classroom.

2. Prepare the review as follows:

Include a title for your book review (Example below):

Adding Men and Class to the Work-Family Mix

Add the actual title of the book and bibliographical information (Example below):

Reshaping the Work-Family Debate: Why Men and Class Matter.

By Joan C. Williams, Cambridge, MA, Harvard University Press, 2010. 293 pp. $29.95 (hardback) ISBN: 978-0674055674

3. If you will be including any references in the book review, please refer to the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (6th edition), 2010 for information on formatting in APA style. All references/citations must follow APA style.

4. Please submit your completed book review to the online submission system at <http://www.editorialmanager.com/sers/>. You will need to login as an Author. While submitting your book review, choose the article type “Book Review” from the drop down menu.

5. Once you submit your review, it will be read by the Editor. She will let you know about any suggested content or formatting changes that are needed.

6. If you have any questions, please contact the Editorial Office at sroles@pitt.edu.

Thanks for helping us with your review!
