

SpringerBriefs – fast and easy publishing

Springer is delighted to introduce SpringerBriefs, concise summaries of cutting-edge research and practical applications across a wide spectrum of fields. Featuring compact softcover volumes of 50 to 125 pages, the series covers a range of content from professional to academic.

Typical topics might include:

- A timely report of state-of-the art analytical techniques
- A bridge between new research results published in journal articles and a contextual literature review
- A snapshot of a hot or emerging topic
- An in-depth case study or clinical example
- A presentation of core concepts that students must understand in order to make independent contributions

Author Benefits

- ▶ Briefs allow authors to present their ideas and readers to absorb them with minimal time investment.
- ▶ Briefs will be published as part of Springer's eBook collection, with millions of users worldwide. In addition, Briefs will be available for individual print and electronic purchase.
- ▶ Briefs are characterized by fast, global electronic dissemination and standard publishing contracts
- ▶ Books in the program will benefit from easy-to-use manuscript preparation and formatting guidelines, and expedited production schedules. We aim for publication 8-12 weeks after acceptance.

SpringerBriefs in a nutshell

- ▶ Softcover binding
- ▶ Versions in print, eBook, and MyCopy so readers have access 24 hours a day
- ▶ A very quick turnaround to reach the market quickly

SpringerBriefs in Archaeological Heritage Management

This series, published in conjunction with ICAHM (the International Committee on Archaeological Heritage Management, a scientific arm of UNESCO), addresses critical contemporary problems and illustrates exemplary work in archaeological heritage management in countries around the globe. Contributing authors see archaeological heritage management as a dynamic interface between professional practice, scholarly investigation, and the public sphere. The titles in this series are grounded, practical, applied, theoretically engaged, and problem-solving.
