

How to use my SpringerToken for Authors

With the SpringerToken for authors, Springer grants you a discount on all Springer books (except titles in sale). Find a showcase step-by-step description below.

Step 1 – From the product page to the shopping cart

- The prices on our product pages are regular prices. Clicking the shopping cart button opens the shopping cart module on the right upper part of the product page.
- You are taken to the shopping cart page by clicking the TO CART button in the shopping cart module.

- On the the shopping cart page you enter your SpringerToken into the intended field.

- Click the CALCULATE DISCOUNT button, then the discounted price will be displayed.

Step 2 – Submitting your order

- Click on the CONTINUE button.
- Register as a new customer, or login with your existing customer account.
- Provide your billing and shipping addresses.
The discounted price including VAT for your country will only be displayed after you have given your shipping address.
- From now on, you will be recognized as Springer author (with discount guarantee) every time you log in again.
- You no longer need to enter your SpringerToken anymore.
