Aequationes mathematicae
Editor-in-Chief: Z. Páles

- An international journal of pure and applied mathematics, which emphasizes functional equations, dynamical systems, iteration theory, combinatorics, and geometry
- Publishes research papers, high quality survey articles, reports of meetings, bibliographies, and summaries of recent developments and research in the field
- 93% of authors who answered a survey reported that they would definitely publish or probably publish in the journal again

Aequationes mathematicae is an international journal of pure and applied mathematics, which emphasizes functional equations, dynamical systems, iteration theory, combinatorics, and geometry. The journal publishes research papers, reports of meetings, and bibliographies. High quality survey articles are an especially welcome feature. In addition, summaries of recent developments and research in the field are published rapidly.
