The Geneva Risk and Insurance Review
Editor-in-Chief: M. Hoy; A. Muermann

- The academic journal of the Geneva Association and the European Group of Risk and Insurance Economists (EGRIE) Publishes innovative, high-level research on risk and insurance economics

The Geneva Risk and Insurance Review (GRIR) is the academic journal of the Geneva Association and the European Group of Risk and Insurance Economists (EGRIE). It publishes original research that advances our understanding of the economics of risk and insurance.

Published twice a year this international journal provides a forum for the exchange of academic findings and views on all aspects of risk and insurance economics, with emphasis on theoretical, empirical and experimental research in these fields.

Until June 2005, the Journal was published as "The Geneva Papers on Risk and Insurance Theory".

Impact Factor: 0.625 (2018), Journal Citation Reports*

On the homepage of The Geneva Risk and Insurance Review at springer.com you can

- Sign up for our Table of Contents Alerts
- Get to know the complete Editorial Board
- Find submission information