Tropical Animal Health and Production
Editor-in-Chief: L. Harrison

- Publishes the results of original research, investigation and observation in all fields of animal health, welfare and production
- Aims to improve health and productivity of livestock and better utilization of animal resources in tropical, subtropical and similar environments
- 99% of authors who answered a survey reported that they would definitely publish or probably publish in the journal again

Tropical Animal Health and Production is an international journal publishing the results of original research in any field of animal health, welfare, and production with the aim of improving health and productivity of livestock, and better utilisation of animal resources, including wildlife in tropical, subtropical and similar agro-ecological environments.

Published in association with the Centre for Tropical Veterinary Medicine, University of Edinburgh.

Details concerning the submission and publication procedures:
- No Page Charges
- No Fees for Online Color Images
- Optional Open Access Publication Fee (APC) – USD 3000,- / Euro 2200,-

The Journal uses software to screen for plagiarism.

Impact Factor: 0.912 (2016), Journal Citation Reports®

On the homepage of Tropical Animal Health and Production at springer.com you can
- Sign up for our Table of Contents Alerts
- Get to know the complete Editorial Board
- Find submission information