CSR, Sustainability, Ethics & Governance

Series Editors: S.O. Idowu, R. Schmidpeter

In recent years the discussion about the relationship between business and society has made immense progress. This has in turn led to a broad academic and practical discussion on innovative management concepts, such as Corporate Social Responsibility, Corporate Governance and Sustainability Management. This series offers a comprehensive overview of the latest theoretical and empirical research and provides sound concepts for sustainable business strategies. In order to do so, it gathers together the experience an in-depth contemplations of leading thinkers in the fields of management theory and the social sciences. It makes highly innovative management approaches accessible to academics from various disciplines, business leaders and interested students alike. Furthermore it brings together different perspectives from all over the world and thus contributes to the interdisciplinary and intercultural discussion on the role of business in society. The underlying intention of this series is to contribute to the world's most challenging problems by developing new management concepts that create value for both: business and society. It has been developed to suppose those managers and researchers who are willing to contribute to creating sustainable business approaches for our common future.
