Trends in Organized Crime
Editor-in-Chief: G.A. Antonopoulos

► Presents a composite of analyses and syntheses of research on organized crime, drawn from a variety of sources
► Publishes peer-reviewed, original research articles and excerpts from significant governmental reports
► Published in association with the International Association for the Study of Organized Crime (IASOC)

Trends in Organized Crime presents a composite of analyses and syntheses of research on organized crime, drawn from a variety of sources. It publishes peer-reviewed, original research articles and excerpts from significant governmental reports. The contents also include reviews of important new books and presents analysis and commentary on current issues in organized crime.

Trends in Organized Crime is an ideal resource for practitioners and policy makers, as well as the academic community. It is published in association with the International Association for the Study of Organized Crime (IASOC).

On the homepage of Trends in Organized Crime at springer.com you can ► Sign up for our Table of Contents Alerts
► Get to know the complete Editorial Board
► Find submission information

Electronic access
► link.springer.com

Subscription information
► springer.com/librarians