Women Studies Abstracts
Editor: P. Peters

- Abstracts significant research in women studies
- Drawn from sixty periodicals, covers thirty key areas
- Topics include education; psychology; sex roles; politics; employment; violence against women; pregnancy, childbirth and neonatal care; and more

This quarterly journal abstracts significant research in women studies covering thirty key topic areas, including education and socialization, psychology of women, sex roles, and characteristics; politics and government; employment; family; violence against women; mental and physical health; pregnancy, fertility, childbirth and neonatal care; finances; history; literature; art and music; interpersonal relations; and biography and criticism. The contents are drawn from some sixty periodicals dedicated to issues relevant to women's movements and behavior.

On the homepage of Women Studies Abstracts at springer.com you can
- Sign up for our Table of Contents Alerts
- Get to know the complete Editorial Board
- Find submission information

Subscription information
- springer.com/librarians