China-EU Law Journal
Joint Chief Editors: A. Hatje; F. Liu

▶ Presents innovative studies on Chinese law from a European perspective
▶ Covers Chinese law, European legal developments affecting China and Chinese-EU relations
▶ Offers multifaceted legal perspective on China and Europe in a globalizing world

The China-EU Law Journal (CELJ) is a peer-reviewed publication bringing together Chinese, European and international perspectives on law.

The scope of the journal includes, but is not limited to, the following topics:

- Chinese law
- European legal developments of specific importance to China
- The law of China-EU relations
- China and Europe in a globalizing world.

CELJ welcomes comparative and interdisciplinary approaches. Studies on Chinese law from a European perspective and studies on European law from a Chinese perspective are of particular interest.

CESL accepts articles presenting genuine research findings as well as reports and book reviews.
