Palgrave Studies in Literature, Science and Medicine

Series Editors: S. Ruston, A. Jenkins, J. Howell

Palgrave Studies in Literature, Science and Medicine is an exciting series that focuses on one of the most vibrant and interdisciplinary areas in literary studies: the intersection of literature, science and medicine. Comprised of academic monographs, essay collections, and Palgrave Pivot books, the series will emphasize a historical approach to its subjects, in conjunction with a range of other theoretical approaches. The series will cover all aspects of this rich and varied field and is open to new and emerging topics as well as established ones. Editorial board: Andrew M. Beresford, Professor in the School of Modern Languages and Cultures, Durham University, UK; Steven Connor, Professor of English, University of Cambridge, UK; Lisa Diedrich, Associate Professor in Women's and Gender Studies, Stony Brook University, USA; Kate Hayles, Professor of English, Duke University, USA; Jessica Howell, Associate Professor of English, Texas A&M University, USA; Peter Middleton, Professor of English, University of Southampton, UK; Kirsten Shepherd-Barr, Professor of English and Theatre Studies, University of Oxford, UK; Sally Shuttleworth, Professorial Fellow in English, St Anne's College, University of Oxford, UK; Susan Squier, Professor of Women's Studies and English, Pennsylvania State University, USA; Martin Willis, Professor of English, University of Westminster, UK; Karen A. Winstead, Professor of English, The Ohio State University, USA
