

Tsinghua Global Business Journalism Series

Series Editors: M. Hang, R.S. Dunham

This book series aims to provide up-to-date knowledge on business journalism education and practices. It harnesses the expertise of both eminent business journalism academics and highly skilled and experienced journalism practitioners from China and the rest of the world to provide an in-depth look at China's rapidly evolving economy and the impact that China's economic slowdown could have on the global economy. This book series offers invaluable knowledge of the subject matter from some of the world's leading experts, as well as practical knowledge of the skills needed to most effectively communicate about the Chinese economy on various multimedia platforms.
