Please note, we are currently updating the 2018 Journal Metrics.

The Journal of Neurology is an international peer-reviewed journal which provides a source for publishing original communications and reviews on clinical neurology covering the whole field.

In addition, Letters to the Editors serve as a forum for clinical cases and the exchange of ideas which highlight important new findings. A section on Neurological progress serves to summarise the major findings in certain fields of neurology. Commentaries on new developments in clinical neuroscience, which may be commissioned or submitted, are published as editorials.

Every neurologist interested in the current diagnosis and treatment of neurological disorders needs access to the information contained in this valuable journal.

Impact Factor: 4.204 (2018), Journal Citation Reports®
