Indian Economic Review

Journal of Delhi School of Economics

Editor-in-Chief: P. Dua

- ▶ Presents scholarly articles on all areas of applied and theoretical economics
- ▶ Disseminates high-quality, innovative research on the Indian and global economy, and contemporary policy issues from both an Indian and international perspective

Among South Asia's most respected scholarly publications in economics, this biannual, peer-reviewed journal was earlier published in-house by the Delhi School of Economics. The contents include scholarly articles on a broad range of topics spanning all areas of applied and theoretical economics. With the aim of encouraging and disseminating high-quality research on the Indian and global economy, and analyzing contemporary issues in the mainstream of economics from an Indian and international perspective, the journal presents applied, institutional and theoretical papers on relevant and timely issues of economic debate.
