Interaction of Mechanics and Mathematics

Series Ed.: L. Truskinovsky

The Interaction of Mechanics and Mathematics (IMM) series publishes advanced textbooks and introductory scientific monographs devoted to modern research in the wide area of mechanics. The authors are distinguished specialists with international reputation in their field of expertise. The books are intended to serve as modern guides in their fields and anticipated to be accessible to advanced graduate students. IMM books are planned to be comprehensive reviews developed to the cutting edge of their respective field and to list the major references.

Indexed by SCOPUS, zbMATH, SCImago.
