Amsterdam Studies in Jewish Philosophy

Series Ed.: R.W. Munk

The aim of Amsterdam Studies in Jewish Philosophy is to provide a forum for scholarly works on Jewish philosophy. The series covers history of philosophy, science, political and religious thought, as well as other areas in the domain of Jewish philosophy. The chronological scope of the series extends from Antiquity to the Present. Founded in 1996, Amsterdam Studies in Jewish Philosophy publishes monographs, collections of essays, editions and translations of original texts, as well as new research and new approaches in the field.

All books to be published in this Series will be fully peer-reviewed before final acceptance.
