Series Editors: W.S. Smith, J.S. Smith, D. Verducci

Among inter-cultural dialogues of phenomenology, the Islamic philosophy remains barely touched upon. It is the intention of the World Phenomenology Institute to unfold a dialogue between Islamic philosophy and phenomenology - phenomenology of life in particular - at the deepest philosophical level toward the uncovering common springs of philosophical meditation. It is hoped that this interchange between the Islamic and occidental philosophies will foster the 'New Humanism so urgently needed in our world'.
