

The New York University Salomon Center Series on Financial Markets and Institutions

E. Altman (Ed.)

The New York University Salmon Center Conference Series is a regular book series featuring contributions presented at conferences, workshops and forums, conducted by the Salomon Center of New York University.

Each volume in the series is an edited collection of thematic papers commissioned from leading scholars around the world. Discussants are drawn from the practitioner and public policy communities. The resulting volume aim to provide a rigorous conceptual and empirical foundation for subsequent discussion and debate.
