Refugees and Forced Migrants in Africa and the EU

Comparative and Multidisciplinary Perspectives on Challenges and Solutions

- Comparative European and African study on refugees
- Dealing with difference in urban environments
- Study in political sciences

The so-called 'refugee crisis' represents one of the biggest contemporary political and social challenges. Although many African countries have been dealing with forced migratory and refugee movements for decades, their experiences have so far largely been neglected in the predominantly Eurocentric public debate. The present volume aims to bridge this gap by providing comparative African and European perspectives from different disciplines, highlighting the challenges but also potential mutual benefits of social diversification, and offering an insight into possible solution strategies.
