Leadership Today

Practices for Personal and Professional Performance

- First textbook to integrate hard and soft leadership skills
- Leadership is approached from a personal and professional perspective
- Features contributions from leadership scholars and practitioners from around the world
- Includes such elements as practical cases, interactive questions, experiential exercises and reflection pages
- Reviews conventional as well as non-conventional leadership qualities

This textbook provides a clear understanding of leadership needs in today's business world, explained within the scope of hard and soft leadership skills. It captures qualities and skills such as spirituality, empathy, moral behavior, mindfulness, empathy, problem solving, self-confidence, ambition, knowledge, global understanding, and information technology. This text explains and provides guidelines for the implementation of each skill and includes examples from contemporary and historical leaders inviting the reader to consider each quality and engage in self-reflection. This book deviates from excessive theoretical descriptions presenting a timely, hands-on approach to leadership. Featuring contributions from academics and professionals from around the world, this text will be of interest to students, researchers, professionals in business and leadership who aspire to lead beyond their immediate environment.
