Reimagining Christian Education

Cultivating Transformative Approaches

- Offers a wide range of perspectives and topics on lifelong learning within a Christian framework collated into a single volume
- Addresses a gap in current literature on the practical applicability of Christian values to educational contexts, which extends past traditional learning institutions to other 'real-world' professional and non-professional contexts and environments
- Brings together international scholars and practitioners, providing fresh and transformational Christian reflections and perspectives on the place of love in education

This book is an arresting interdisciplinary publication on Christian education, comprising works by leading scholars, professionals and practitioners from around the globe. It focuses on the integrated approaches to Christian education that are both theoretically sound and practically beneficial, and identifies innovative pedagogical methods and tools that have been field-tested and practice-approved. It discusses topics such as exploring programmes and courses through different lenses; learning challenges and opportunities within organisational management; theology of business; Christian models of teaching in different contexts; job preparedness; developing different interpretive or meaning-making frameworks for working with social justice, people with disability, non-profit community organisations and in developing country contexts. It offers graduate students, teachers, school administrators, organisational leaders, theologians, researchers and education practitioners a fresh and inspiring reimagining of Christian education perspectives and practices and the ramifications of their application to life-long learning.
