School Violence in International Contexts

Perspectives from Educational Leaders Without Borders

- Offers specific solutions on practices within contextual school settings with accompanying online manual
- Provides wide-ranging and international research perspectives on school violence
- Includes the perspective of various stakeholders: community, parents, teachers/support staff/administrators, and law enforcement

This international edited volume is a rare look at cultural, economic and political forces that contribute to school violence. In light of the devastating events in US schools and the violence towards students and schools world-wide, the war on knowledge development in non/secular education is increasing at an alarming rate. This book offers an international perspective on violence from both K-12 to tertiary levels, parents, administrators-teachers-support staff and research scholars in a desire to understand the contextual issues surrounding violence and its impacts on the field of education. ELWB Scholars and practitioners hail from six continents propose historical to futuristic perspectives linking violence towards education and its inhabitants while framing future strategies to alter multinational fear mongering to the decline of knowledge generation for an informed citizenry.
