Economics for Environmental Studies
A Strategic Guide to Micro- and Macroeconomics

- Provides readers with the micro- and macroeconomic concepts and tools needed for environmental studies as well as environmental and resource economics
- Presents a goal-oriented introduction to economics for non-economists and also serves as a “refresher” for economists
- Review questions, exercises and solutions included in the text

This textbook provides a concise introduction to micro- and macroeconomics and demonstrates how economic tools and approaches can be used to analyze environmental issues. Written in an accessible style without compromising depth of the analysis, central issues in the public policy debate on environmental problems and environmental policy are discussed and analyzed from an economics perspective. The book is meant as an introductory (and in some parts intermediate) text for undergraduate students in environmental sciences without a background in economics. It also serves as a companion for economists interested in a presentation of the micro and macro foundations of environmental economics, in a nutshell. The second edition has been revised, updated and extended in many ways, for instance by adding a microeconomic section on environmental technical change, a discussion of the significance of technical change for a sustainable development and a considerably extended macroeconomic section on economic growth.

Order online at springer.com/booksellers
Springer Nature Customer Service Center LLC
233 Spring Street
New York, NY 10013
USA
T: +1-800-SPRINGER NATURE
(777-4643) or 212-460-1500
customerservice@springernature.com

Prices and other details are subject to change without notice. All errors and omissions excepted. Americas: Tax will be added where applicable. Canadian residents please add PST, GST or HST. Please add $5.00 for shipping one book and $1.00 for each additional book. Outside the US and Canada add $10.00 for first book, $5.00 for each additional book. If an order cannot be fulfilled within 90 days, payment will be refunded upon request. Prices are payable in US currency or its equivalent.