The Impact of the European Convention on Human Rights on Private International Law

- A unique collection and description of relevant case-law of the ECtHR in the area of Private International law (PIL)
- A thorough examination of the role of Art 1 ECHR in issues of PIL
- Basic information about both the ECHR and the relevant three topics in PIL

In this book the interaction between the rights guaranteed in the European Convention of Human Rights (ECHR) and private international law has been analysed by examining the case law of the European Court of Human Rights (the Court) and selected national courts. In doing so the book focuses on the impact of the ECHR on the three main issues of private international law: jurisdiction, applicable law and the recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments. Next to a list of cases consulted and a comprehensive bibliography, the book offers brief introductions to PIL and the ECHR for readers who are less familiar with either of the topics. This makes the book not only a valuable tool for specialists and practitioners in the fields covered, but at the same time a well-documented basis for students and starting researchers specializing in either or both directions.
