The Vietnam Nationalist Party (1927-1954)

- Presents the first in-depth research on the Vietnam Nationalist Party
- Includes resources from localities and hometowns of vital Vietnam Nationalist Party figures
- Based on the theoretical perspectives of conflict theory, structuralism, social system theory, dialectic materialism and Marxist theory

This book presents research focusing on the Vietnam Nationalist Party (Việt Nam Quốc dân Đảng) from 1927 to 1954. It elaborates on the party's establishment, political ideology and organizational structure, the Yên Bái Uprising, the party's downfall, and its role in the Vietnamese Revolution. Findings are presented systematically and comprehensively, relying on official and unofficial, as well as domestic and foreign sources, including texts from localities and hometowns of vital figures in the organization. The author compares, contrasts and evaluates this complex collection of documents based on the theoretical perspectives of conflict theory, social system theory, social structuralism and functionalism, dialectic materialism and Marxist theory. It is essential reading for Vietnamese and international researchers interested in Vietnam's political context in the early twentieth century and for undergraduate and postgraduate programs in Vietnam's history and politics.
